

On March 9, I was delighted to help launch United Way of Milford's newest initiative—Women with United Vision. Thank you to Jennifer Bernheim (left), Chair of Women with United Vision and Darcy Ellis, Board Member of United Way of Milford (right), for their important work developing this forum for women in our community to give voice to their priorities for community improvement. If you would like more information about Women with United Vision, please feel free to contact my office at 860-240-0482.

STATE SENATOR GAYLE SLOSSBERG

Protecting Families, Seniors and Our Communities

Dear Friend,

This is such a busy time of the year – end of the school year activities for the kids, graduations, final exams, preparations for summer vacation and camps. Everyone is juggling busy lives and hectic schedules while somehow balancing the stresses we are all facing —aging parents, busy kids, challenges at work, keeping up with the bills. I just wanted you to know that while we are all running through our days, I am in Hartford fighting to make sure the state makes good decisions, because I understand that those decisions affect each of us and our families. As your advocate, I am always available to listen and step in on your behalf. I urge you to keep in touch with me at slossberg@senatedems.ct.gov or 860-240-0482. I am here to work for you and I am honored to have that privilege.

With Warmest Regards,

Gayle Slossberg

SUMMER TIPS

- ▶ Road Construction—Know where the bottlenecks are before you get there! Sign up with the Department of Transportation to receive e-mail and Twitter alerts on traffic incidents in our area. 860-594-2000 or www.dotdata.ct.gov/etraffic
- ▶ Summer vacations, camps and activities can get expensive. Here are some places to find affordable alternatives. Call 2-1-1 United Way for details on summer camps, child care, and youth programs. Check out ctvisit.com or call 1-888-CTvisit to get ideas for family activities that are close to home. Contact your local area recreation department:
